

The Hill's Got Talent...

Beauty isn't everything

KIRSTY MACFARLANE

Whether you wear make-up,
Or wear clothes that are in fashion...
Determines who your friends are
And what you call your passion.

Your hairstyle,
Your figure,
Your likes,
Your dislikes...

In our society,
This is what matters.
But it doesn't change who you are;
Or how you look at others!

Beauty isn't everything...
What counts is on the inside,
Those who only look skin deep
Aren't worth having at your side.

True friends are the ones
Who care not what you look like;
They look deeper inside...
Your personality is their site

Friends like these make life worthwhile,
They are the ones who mean a lot...
Because they accept you for who you are
And don't care about the rot!

Yep, you guessed it...these masterpieces have all been developed by young people in and around Swan Hill.. Each piece was displayed at the De-Generate Youth Festival held in June this year.
